Archers, Tams aim for repeat title duel

No need to motivate the Knights, says Alas

By James A. Pope

Manila (PDI) — The national team's victory over the Philippines in the 2007 Asian Cup was a historic moment for the team, and it's a moment that the national team's coach, Alas, says they don't need to be motivated for.

Alas, who has coached the national team since 2004, says the team's victory over the Philippines was a testament to their hard work and dedication. He says the team's victory was a result of their hard work and dedication, and he says they don't need to be motivated for.

Some wedding tips from wedded me

Every day wedding is a big day. I got married 11 years ago, and I still remember the excitement and the stress. Here are some tips from a bride who has been married for 11 years.

Venue

Choose a venue that is easy to get to.

When choosing a venue, I chose a place that was easy to get to. I didn't want to worry about traffic or parking. I also chose a place that was big enough for all the guests.

To check my husband's liquidity after 11 years of marriage, I checked his mobile phone bill and found he had extensive calls with another woman—his ex-girlfriend.

Guest list

When creating the guest list, I made sure to include all the important people. I also made sure to leave room for family and friends.

When choosing a wedding cake, I chose a cake that was easy to eat and tasted great.

Some wedding tips from wedded me

When you officially say "I do," you're entering a new world. Here are some tips from a bride who's been there, done that, and brought home the wedding dress.

1. Plan early. Start planning at least a year before the wedding. This gives you time to research vendors, choose a venue, and handle all the legal stuff.

2. Set a budget. Before you start planning, sit down with your future husband and decide on a realistic budget. This will help you make decisions throughout the process.

3. Prioritize. Not every detail is equally important. Decide what's most important to you and your partner, and focus on those things first.

4. Communicate. Keep your future husband in the loop at all times. This is a team effort, and you both need to be on the same page.

5. Stay calm. The wedding day is stressful, but it's also a special day. Try to stay as relaxed as possible, and enjoy every moment.

6. Delegate. You can't do everything yourself. Assign tasks to your bridesmaids, groomsmen, and other family members.

7. Have a backup plan. Things can go wrong on the wedding day, so it's important to have a plan in place for emergencies.

8. Enjoy the day. This is your chance to celebrate with your loved ones. Don't get so caught up in the details that you miss the moment.

Lisa Murphy and Scott Sparo

Lisa Murphy and Scott Sparo got married on May 12, 1995, at the St. John's Episcopal Church in St. John's. The bride wore a white gown with a full skirt and a long train. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a red tie. They were surrounded by family and friends in a beautiful ceremony.

Clut by wit

It's funny how many people say "I do" without really meaning it.

Bridal shower

A bridal shower is a party for the bride-to-be and her bridesmaids. It's usually held a few weeks before the wedding. The bride and bridesmaids are usually the guests of honor.

1. Choose a date and time. The shower should be held on a day when the bride and bridesmaids are all available.

2. Choose a venue. The shower can be held at a home, a restaurant, or a community center.

3. Invite guests. The guests should include the bride, bridesmaids, and other family members.

4. Plan activities. There are many games and activities that can be played at a bridal shower.

5. Serve food and drinks. The shower should be a social event, so food and drinks are important.

6. Give gifts. The bride and bridesmaids will receive gifts from their guests.

7. Have a good time. The shower should be a fun and enjoyable event.

 How the marriage had been would have the man. But what if it had been a happy marriage and things turned sour?

By Maria Soledad Perante

I have been married almost 20 years. I have a 12-year-old son and a 10-year-old daughter. I have a good job and a good income. I have a good house and a good car. I have a good life.

But then, I found out that my wife was having an affair. I was shocked. I was angry. I was hurt. I was devastated. I was lost. I was confused. I was scared. I was alone.

I had to find a way to deal with this. I had to find a way to survive. I had to find a way to move on. I had to find a way to live again.
